Steps to Edit an Image in Photoshop Elements 1. Go to the File menu and choose the Open dialog box. The Open dialog box is often not a separate dialog box, but simply a tab in an existing dialog box. 2. Click the Photoshop Elements version of the file you want to open. A pop-up window should appear. 3. Click the Images tab to start the process. 4. Click Browse to load an image into the file for editing. Do not use the "Open" button that is located in the dialog box's default location. Adobe sells a set of 20-odd downloadable tutorials that start at $10 apiece. The most recently added tutorials are free. Tutorials were placed in the Elements section of the web site. The next update will add new tutorials there. By popular demand, however, the 20 tutorials in this book have also been added to the Photoshop.com site. You can now download PDF documents of each of the 20 tutorials. The download site can be found through the Adobe Help. The tutorials explain the various features of Photoshop and Elements and show you how to use them. The tutorials explain how to create images using layers, including how to compose and edit a layout. The tutorials are like workbooks. Each one also comes with a sample design and exercises to add more layers to the design, to complete it, to print it, and so on. The tutorials cover design as well as photography. They also cover print and web publishing. A quick sample of what is available is shown in the table below:

Two monks from the village are suspected of stealing sacred canisters containing holy relics from a temple in the northern Chinese city of Xi'an after the temple was discovered to be empty and the relic containers gone, local authorities said Monday. (Photo by Xinhua News Agency) BEIJING, Dec. 8 (Xinhua) -- Two monks from a Buddhist village in Zhejiang Province are suspected of stealing sacred canisters containing holy relics from a temple in the northern Chinese city of Xi'an after the temple was discovered to be empty and the relic containers gone, local authorities said Monday. The monks used two canisters to steal relics valued at 1,400 yuan (about 231 U.S. dollars) and another 300 yuan each, the Zhifeng County government said in a statement. The value of the stolen relics was estimated at more than 25,000 yuan. The monks are also suspected of trying to steal relics from three other temples in Zhifeng County. They made the relics disappear from the temples with the help of accomplices, including two pastors and a temple monk.
